Imagine Your New Residential Front Yard

Your backyard should be a place where family and friends gather, not just a patch of lawn. However, creating an outdoor space that fosters connection and relaxation can feel overwhelming when you're unsure who to trust.

That's where the idea of the "Third Space" comes in—your home is your first space, your work is your second, and your third is where you build memories. With Third Space, you get a landscape team that listens to your needs, communicates clearly, and delivers a space designed for your lifestyle. With an experienced foreman on-site every step of the way, your project stays on track, leaving you with a beautiful and functional area tailored to your vision.

CONCEPT

Initial Plan

Your front yard is transformed into a romantic, lush sanctuary that beautifully complements your home's historic architecture. By pairing durable, organic stone pathways with abundant, layered plantings, we have created a vibrant and low-maintenance landscape full of color and timeless appeal.

Crafted in Every Corner

Stone Entry Pillar

A sturdy stacked-stone pillar serves as a sophisticated anchor point, featuring illuminated house numbers that greet guests with a warm, modern glow.

Natural Flagstone Paths

Meandering irregular flagstone walkways provide a charming and organic contrast to the clean lines of the central concrete entrance path.

Integrated Landscape Lighting

Subtle low-voltage lighting fixtures are thoughtfully placed to highlight the texture of the masonry and cast a soft, inviting radiance over the garden beds at night.
